eye in the house! We were treated to Reyna's performance of "Libre Soy!" from Frozen and a skit from Romeo and Juliet (featuring Jesus and Monce). Of course there was music and dancing and photos with cap and gown.

On Saturday July 1 we celebrated the first year of our Escuelita Santo Niño with a grand fiesta and graduation ceremony. It is difficult to convey the feelings of pride, recognition and accomplishment that filled every corner of Santo Niño when the students marched in for our simple ceremonies.

Each student was called by name to receive a certificate of completion and an individual portfolio of their achievements that had been carefully prepared by their teachers, Cristina Coronado and Nancy Cisneros. Sister Janet served as the Directora and Mistress of Ceremonies for the occasion.

After the presentation of certificates each mother was invited to share an expression of pride and gratitude for the participation of her child and the successes of the year. There wasn't a dry

We are on a little summer vacation now and the center is getting painted inside and out. School will resume on August 1!
